Barriers:

Traditional tools of promoting didn't work

Job advisors was waiting for clients – but it was a waste of time

Who is the job advisor? – the serves was unknown

Solutions:

- Cooperation with local authorities and local leaders
- 2. To build local relations between people who already are in project to convince other people from their area
- 3. To show the project by stories about change of professional live
- 4. Job advisors in local institutions very near workers

Interesting points:

- People with low qualification completely different meaning of the definition
- Training isn't the best way to developed a lot of people use the informal learning to professional development (for example youtube)
- Time and access the main important elements is to plan the support for workers – these people are tired!
