Adult learning sector - requires lots of effort from all stakeholders

Developed sector in the common system of education;

Participation of adults in education and training;

Number of people with low qualifications is almost in the jobs offered to them;

People with a medium level of qualification do not have sufficient digital skills.

Key obstacles for inclusion in adult education

- Lack of support from the employer;
- Training often is not offered at close distance venues;
- Due to health problems or advanced age;
- Training is too expensive / they can't afford it;
- Lack of time due to work-related duties or organization of training at an inconvenient

Case: Project Direction Ca

GROUP:

Working people –employee

- low qualifications,
- 50+

MAIN CONDITIONS:

- Low motivation to develop
- Dispersion target group
- Scale of the project
- Low awareness of job advising into target group

How the system is build

Block of voucher → Project of activation vouchers – 200 vouchers, 12 % state contribution → Project of activation vouchers – 200 vouchers, 12 % state contribution → National register of services

WHY VOUCHER?

- Paid per hour
- No „unemployed“ jobs

Solutions:

1. Cooperation with local activities and local leaders
2. To build local relations between people who already are in project to convince another people from their area
3. To show the project by stories about change of professional live
4. Job advisors in local institutions – very near workers

Adult learning sector - requires lots of effort from all stakeholders

Developed sector in the common system of education;

Participation of adults in education and training;

Number of people with low qualifications is almost double in the jobs offered to them;

Some people with a medium level of qualification do not have sufficient digital skills.

Key obstacles for inclusion in adult education

- Lack of support from the employer;
- Training often is not offered at close distance venues;
- Due to health problems or advanced age;
- Training is too expensive / they can't afford it;
- Lack of time due to work-related duties or organization of training at an inconvenient time.
